OCCCO is an affiliate of PICO, a national network of more than 1,000 member organizations. PICO is faith-based, non-partisan and multi-cultural and represents over 50 faith traditions and 1 million families in 150 cities and 17 states. <http://www.piconetwork.org>

OCCCO is a non-profit 501(c)3 organization

Faith ... Justice ... Empowerment ... Dedication ... Family

OCCCO is ...

A faith-based community organization working to strengthen families and improve neighborhoods.

HEALTH Victories

OCCCO leaders met with their elected state and national representatives to urge them to expand health insurance coverage to low-income children.

SAFETY Victories

Fullerton City Council commits $650,000 to put safety and athletic lighting in Richman Park.

The City of Santa Ana commits over $2.2 million to repave streets in the Delhi neighborhood.

HOUSING Victories

West Fullerton residents win a pro-active code enforcement policy designed to protect tenants from unsafe and unhealthy living conditions.

IMMIGRATION Victories

800 community members take part in a candlelight vigil at St. Joseph Church in Santa Ana to support reasonable and just immigration reform.

Our Vision ...

Communities where families thrive and people are empowered by faith and knowledge, dedicated to justice, and engaged in the civic process.

EDUCATION Victories

Fullerton parents win over $120,000 in funding for a PACE preschool and parent literacy program for low-income families.
