OCCCO is an affiliate of PICO, a national network of more than 1,000 member organizations. PICO is faith-based, non-partisan and multi-cultural and represents over 50 faith traditions and 1 million families in 150 cities and 17 states. <http://www.piconetwork.org>

OCCCO is a non-profit 501(c)3 organization

Faith ... Justice ... Empowerment ... Dedication ... Family

OCCCO is ...

A faith-based community organization working to strengthen families and improve neighborhoods.

HEALTH Victories

March 2007, a Senate Budget resolution passed, providing $50 billion in new funding to reauthorize the State Children's Health Insurance Program (SCHIP).

Paty Madueno, OCCCO leader / Board Member

SAFETY Victories

Fullerton City Council commits $650,000 to put safety and athletic lighting in Richman Park.

The City of Santa Ana commits over 2.2 million dollars to repave streets in the Delhi neighborhood.

HOUSING Victories

West Fullerton residents win a general-inspection by code enforcement of poor housing conditions at the Parkin Gardens apartment complex.

EDUCATION Victories

Fullerton parents win over $120,000 in funding for a PACE preschool and parent literacy program for low-income families.

Our Vision ...

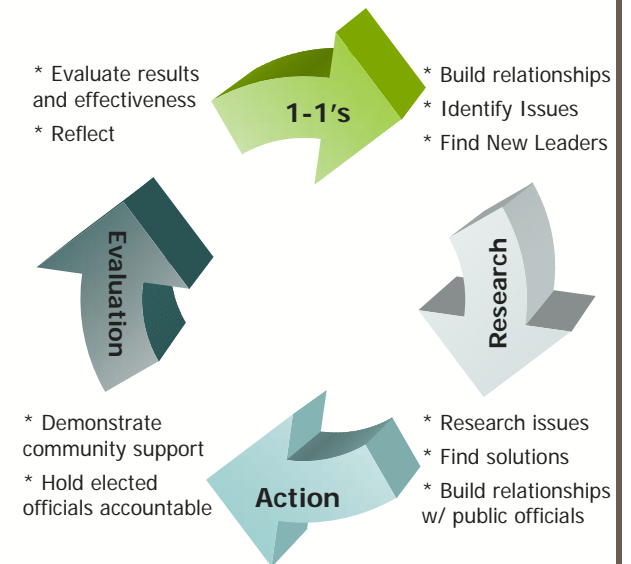

Communities where families thrive and people are empowered by faith and knowledge, dedicated to justice, and engaged in the civic process.

IMMIGRATION Victories

800 community members take part in a candlelight vigil at St. Joseph Church in Santa Ana to support reasonable and just immigration reform.

Over 400 Costa Mesa residents meet with Chief of Police to discuss the city council's plan to enforce immigration laws through the local police department.
